2011-2012

WE ARE MSJ.

The hands who serve our community.

The hands who support each other.

Together we build who we are,

one hand at a time.

Letter from the Principal

Dear Students, Faculty, Staff and Friends of MSJ,

Yearbooks are snapshots of what makes up a year. They are about the people and events that tell the story of significant moments in the life of a people and school. A yearbook should capture the heart of what a people or group is all about. A yearbook should offer us an answer to the stubborn question "What really matters?" So, whether answered in this yearbook or not, let's take a look at what really matters.

School year 2011-12 was just beginning when Tropical Storm Irene hit the Green Mountain State with unrelenting force. Students and families were trapped by raging flood waters, washed out roads, and flooded and destroyed homes. Many lives were "turned upside down."

Chinese students, Edward and Sherry, faced challenges of their own. Edward was stranded at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, but eventually found his way to Burlington and Rutland. Sherry had just arrived at Killington, and was settling in with her host family, when Irene hit a few days later. Sherry, her host sister, Kelsey, and the entire family were stranded in Killington. It was through the kindness of neighbors and volunteers that Edward, Sherry, Kelsey and others made it to MSJ through the challenges brought on by Irene.

Here at MSJ the soccer field, unlike the football field and other athletic facilities, was under eight feet of water. Home soccer games were rescheduled to later dates until a suitable playing field could be found. Mill River High School, the College of St. Joseph and Rutland Northeast stepped in to help. MSJ's coaches and parents made sure that players made it to the right field at the right time for all the season's practices and games.

Food and water were collected, roads were temporarily opened and then re-built, and countless additional acts of kindness were shown to those most in need through the care, concern and generosity of others. In a specific way, Tropical Storm Irene highlighted for us, as a community and school, what is important in life, what really matters.

The same is true not only when a storm rages outside, but when a storm rages inside a people and community. Too often internal struggles are ignored.

Abby, a Junior Class officer, addressed Student Government about the problem of inclusion and treating one another with respect and dignity. Later, Abby spoke about this issue before the entire school after morning Mass. Her message was simple: "I hear and see what is happening. Here, this is what it is called. I will not be silent any more. None of us should be silent."

What really matters is when a member of a community takes a stand for what is right and good and just. What really matters, as a famous American activist and reformer once said, is that people are judged "by the content of their character" and not anything else.

Look at the photos in this yearbook and consider the stories they tell. Take some time to review the year and to ask yourself some of the hard questions about our community and school and your role in making it a better and stronger place. In doing so, consider these words: "Happy are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied." That's what really matters.

Sincerely,
Mr. Z.

"[The best that the] great teachers can do for us is to help us to discover what is already present in ourselves" -Irving Babbitt

Ms. Butman does exactly what this quote says for each and every student that comes to know her. She does not teach a particular subject or coach a sports team, but she overlooks important aspects of Mount Saint Joseph Academy. What a student comes to realize upon walking into the library is that it is hers; that's Ms. Butman's library. She is not only our librarian, but she has advised the committee who puts the yearbook together for the past three years.

Over the past four and a half years that Ms. Butman has been at MSJ, she has always been there for the students. If there was ever a book someone needed, she would find it. If she could not find it, then she would do what she could so that the person could acquire the information he or she needed. She has helped students find books for research papers and has given suggestions for great books to read. Ms. Butman has given several students the information and help that they wanted.

The yearbook is a very hectic and time-consuming project, but Ms. Butman has always enjoyed the time she has put into the yearbook the past three years. She has planned and designed this amazing yearbook with the yearbook committee and was able to write her dissertation to receive her doctorate degree. Ms. Butman does it all. She is a friend, teacher and counselor for all of us at MSJ. One can come to her for anything he or she needs.

A student from the class of 2012 would know her the best and know that she takes care of many things and is still able to make it to the Washington D.C. trip and sit there the day after graduation and baccalaureate and finish the yearbook for the rest of us. In mid-December, Ms. Butman announced to the MSJ community that her last day would be December 31st of 2011. We all became upset about the news of her leaving and no one was ready for it. The yearbook committee is over joyed that we chose to dedicate the yearbook to Ms. Butman back in September and we believe that this is the best year to do it. What other way to thank her and show her our appreciation for having her than give her the one thing she works so hard on.

This is for you, Ms. Butman.

With Love,

"Even though we've changed and we're all finding our own place in the world, we all know that when the tears fall or the smile spreads across our face, we'll come to each other because no matter where this crazy world takes us, nothing will ever change so much to the point where we're not all still friends."

Blurb:

"There never was a good knife made of bad steel"

Mr. Audette thanks for the shenanigans and thanks to all my teachers for helping me succeed in high-school. Also thank you Mom for providing undying support in all of my endeavors, and thanks Dad, Peter and Garrett for being there when I needed advice.

Powerlifting 9,10
Gym Junkie 9,10,11,12
Track 9,10,11,12

Will:

To Peter I leave the name Bauman that he may continue the legacy. I leave Grace, Jess, and Abby the table in 4th period, and I also leave the lunch table to whomever is not a senior. Finally I leave AMERICA to all who can say it properly.

In Ten Years:

I will have a blacksmith shop and two dogs, Haggis and Winkie.

NATHANIEL BAUMAN

ROBERT CASSELL

Will:

To Stephen, I leave the football and basketball teams and also the motivation to win. I also leave this to Kev, Mike, Diezel. I love you guys. Work hard; it will pay off.

In Ten Years:

I will be successful and have a job that I love maybe with a family and a beautiful wife in my nice house and car. I will have bought my mom a house and made sure my siblings (including Yoonji) are living good.

Blurb:

People always ask me why did I come here and that is the hardest question that I've had to answer since I have been here, but I can answer it now. I came here because I had a vision that I have a chance in my life to make a difference and be remembered by many for years to come. My vision was to come here and take a school that has a great history of winning in sports, but has greatly lost that history and forgotten what it feels like to win and also want to win. People here have started to accept losing as a good thing as if it is good. I am not used to losing so I guess you could say I kind of wanted to get this school back to the way it used to be. I can't do it alone but I can light the flame and pass it on. Now I will see my vision come true by the actions of the ones I had the honor of playing with.

ADAM DEBLASIO

Blurb: "Always give 100% in everything you do so that when you look back on your life, you will not have any regrets, and you will see that you have taken full advantage of every opportunity that has come your way."

First of all, I would like to thank God for everything You have done for me, for guiding my life this far, and for all the gifts You have blessed me with. Second, I would like to thank my family for everything that they have done for me, especially my Mom (Julie), my Dad (Dominic), and my Brother (Eric). I would not be where I am today if it were not for you. Third, I would like to thank the whole MSJ community for a great four years of high school, especially Mr. Zancanaro, Mr. Merchand, and Ms. Fuller for not only being great teachers, but also great friends. Fourth, I would like to thank my friends for all the great times we shared together, and for always being there. I want to thank the Class of 2012 for a great time, and wish my Class luck in the future as we go our separate ways into college and the world. Until we meet again...

"When it comes to the future, there are three kinds of people: those who let it happen, those who make it happen, and those who wonder what happened."

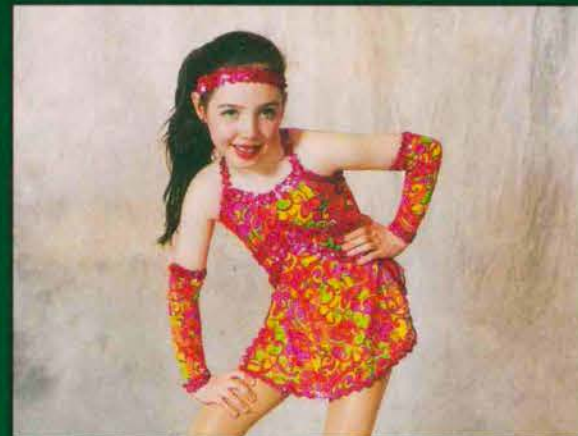

First I want to thank the people who have gotten me to where I am today. My mom and dad have always supported me through everything and have helped me get to the point where I am today. Thank you, Mom and Dad for everything you do for me that has helped me be at this point in my life today. You are the best and I don't know what I would do without you. Kim, thank you for always supporting me and letting me know that you are there for me. I love you so much and I don't know what I would do if you weren't just a phone call away. Natalie, I still remember the first day of school when I thought that I would have no friends at MSJ. Now looking back I think this is so silly because I have the best friend anyone could ever ask for. You are always there for me no matter what and I know I can come to you with anything. You are the best. Yoonji, Wusband, You always know how to make me smile and feel better. You're my crazy best friend that can always make me laugh. I love you lots. Blurb:

Thank you to everyone who has helped me through these four years: the new friends, old friends, and friends that have already moved on from all that is high school, through the difficult times and moments of stress, as well as the happy times with side splitting laughter. Thank you for knowing when to knock some sense into me, for keeping me out of my own head and dealing with my moodiness. You all unknowingly keep me sane and mean more to me than you could realize. Even when there was distance or drama we could come together and face what this little hick town of Rutland could throw at us. Thank you to my teachers for pushing me, showing me what I am capable of and believing in me. Thank you to my family. You are amazing and patient and put up with me for all that I am worth. These years have come and gone faster than I would have ever believed. I have had great people around me through every experience, whether I was willing to acknowledge it at the time or not. So thank you for everything!

JASKIN MELENDEZ

Will:

I will leave my Basketball number to Kyle Ballard.
I will leave my lunch table to Nate O'Shea.

In Ten Years:

I will be playing professional basketball in the NBA. I will have a big house, with a wife and two kids.

GREGORY MERCIER

Will: I leave my Junior year to Maddie Cornell (cause I once heard her say she loves MSJ, so here you go, an extra year)
I leave the soccer team (yes Nolan it's mine so I'm giving it away) to Sebastian AKA "Bacon" Smith
And I leave Grace my daily comment and my smile.

In Ten Years:

This connects in to the last statement of my "blurb." Soccer is something that I love; everyone has that certain thing. So in ten years I hope to be playing soccer professionally. This is my dream and it is what I am striving for.

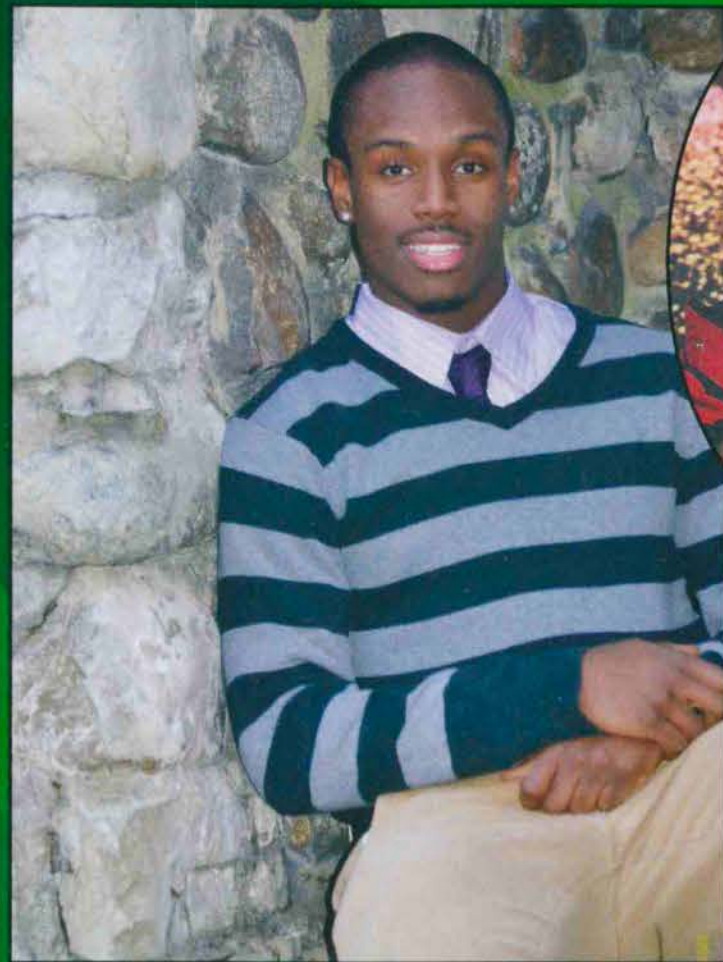

Blurb:

I have had an interesting 3 years at MSJ and a very busy one at that. Reflecting on it now, I laugh when I think about the comment, "your Junior year is always the hardest!" So what did I decide to do? Well I decided to combine what is known as the hardest year, my Junior year, and then add everything from my Senior year. Sounds crazy right? I'm perfectly aware. Thankfully through all of this I had my Dad to support me the whole way; in fact, he was the first person to suggest that I graduate early and it definitely is a trip.

"That which does not kill us makes us stronger."

- Friedrich Nietzsche

This quote is one that I love because it applies to all aspects of life. To physical pain, mental pain, love pain, and any other pain you could think of (that doesn't end up killing you) and everything else that we may endure that may seem overly difficult. This philosopher sums it all up; if it doesn't kill you then it will only make you stronger. In one way or another. This has helped me through the years and will continue to do so throughout my life. Now apparently I am supposed to talk about any "activities" or "clubs" I was a part of and I guess I would have to say that I was President of my Freshman and Sophomore class, but that's not exactly a club; anyway you get the idea. And an activity...well I'm not going to demoralize soccer by referring it to as an activity, but I have been a member and a captain of the team my three years at MSJ.

Blurb:

"I've missed more than 9000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. 26 times, I've been trusted to take the game winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed" -Michael Jordan

My thank you's : First off I would like to thank God and my parents for helping me succeed in high school. Then I would like to thank Mr. Z for accepting me in this school and giving me an opportunity by coming here. Then I would like to thank Coach Benetatos for pushing me and making me better in basketball and also the rest of the coaching staff. I would like to thank Ms. Gilligan for being the sweetest to me and hosting me through my years at MSJ. I would like to thank Ms. Fortier and Ms. Fuller for preparing me to write good papers for when I go to college. I would like to thank Ms. Butman for showing me around and getting me comfortable with school. I would like to thank Ms. Whalen for helping me with the college process and also pushing me when I was down. I would just like to thank all the teachers and students who helped me and prepared me to be successful.

Things I learned in High School:

The party store cannot and will not fill a jar with helium if you bring one. When someone asks you if you would be excited if they were outside your window, look outside before you answer because they might really be there. Bomb is not a pizza topping. "You don't chew it." We don't give holy water in the prom gift bags!!! Taco grease will NEVER be "a slip and slide of pure pleasure." I can read palms and mine says "stupid" when I read bad things on yours. :) Don't close your umbrella inside. It's bad luck! "Capain is kinda like Kapow except with more pain." There are actually only 5 inches in a foot and not 10. Study up on your "Noman Ruminals". L.A.L.O.L.= Lots and lots of Love. You're not flying high enough unless you're breaking lights. No calling someone a dope in the ghetto. People look. "Putting a cookie on first base" is a really good idea but only if you whisper it. And what I will remember most of all! "Think before you speak. Or think and don't speak at all." Just laugh it off after you do. =)

"This ain't goodbye. It's just where love goes. When words aren't warm enough. To keep away the cold. This ain't goodbye. It's not where our story ends. Though I know you can't be mine, like the way we've always been. But as long as we've got time. This ain't goodbye."

SO LONG VERMONT!!! =)

Only taking candy from people when they are in vans at night. Driving to the eye doctor blind. Lame movie buddy. And Jacob. LEONARD: Eating disorders "the musical". ABBYH: My life and my neck even if it means getting concussed! DEWEY: Pchink! Ninja game. Not being stupid. Hyperness. Happiness. Our handshake (Don't forget it)! KITKAT: Inappropriate jokes. Denny's. Rosy Cheeks. Biccups! JACOB my twin: Adventures. "Das mine!" My hero. Being good at everything except for drawing. Baby Koala. 32 page texts at 2am. Turtle man retreating into the shell of justice. "Psst... Mara? Are you awake?" Things that give you cancer XD. Parachute by Train. Kitty's love. My love. My heart. And a perfect year. <3

My Will:

I want to leave my SAT books to Ahrim; wish you can get many offers from top universities in America, and "uawesome" laughter time to Nathalie; I'm happy to learn the German language from you. And all the great moments to all my classmates.

In ten years:

I will be able to build a castle. Working as an architect, sticking to drawing and violin. I will travel to many places in the world and have a happy family with seven children and many dogs and cats.

Blurb:

"Life is beautiful"

I want to thank my host family, the Dezeros, for supporting me and cooking me delicious food, and my host sister Yedim for explaining many English words for me. I'm having great time staying with you.

Thank you to the MSJ faculty and staff, especially Mrs. Keefe, who always encourage me and help me a lot with AP Art, and Mrs. Fuller who is always helpful with everything related to English.

Thank you all my friends, Ahrim, Natalie, Wei, Sherry, Jing, Zihao and Neron. You guys make my first year abroad easier than I thought it would be. I'll always remember our happy time. And my family in China, my mom and dad, my grandma and grandpa, thank you for accompanying with me and always being there for me.

CHANG SHAO

Blurb:

I want to thank my Mama and Papa for all the support that they have shown me through the years, emotionally and mentally. My thanks to my brothers and sisters for all of their help. To my coaches that I have had with their teachings and support and for their views on the world. Also my friends that have stood by my side. All of the teachers that always believed in me even when I didn't. You all have my gratitude.

"Love, you say -- you love me. Then you become. A patch of sunlight propped against a wall, A warmth that vanishes by three o'clock"-from the poem The Clouds by Thomas M. Disch

"And when he gets to heaven, To St. Peter he will tell, "Another Marine reporting, Sir, I've served my time in Hell!"
By a Marine fighting on the Japanese front (WWII) -Bill Cameron

Sports and clubs:

I have played baseball for my four years at MSJ

I ran cross country and indoor track my junior year

I also was one of the four that started SAP my freshman year until Junior year.

In Ten Years:

I will be a marine with a loving, caring, and beautiful fiancé. I will not be living in Rutland. I will probably end up on a mountain overlooking a lake with no phone service and no TV. Sam Fabian will be my roommate if I live near the ocean, so I preferably will chose to go there. So basically in ten years I will be gone and having fun with my life, hang gliding on some hill. Have fun trying to find me in ten years. Actually have fun trying to find me in five years.

Will:

To all the underclassmen, the teachers. Nick you can continue sitting at our old table; speaking of that all seats are open after I'm gone, so have fun. Kit I leave you what we started whispering at all times. To everyone still left at the school my sense of Honor and Justice. Alex I leave you our hate for VHS, go to town with it. Also I will leave Ms. Butman with her peace and quiet for third period.

WEI WANG

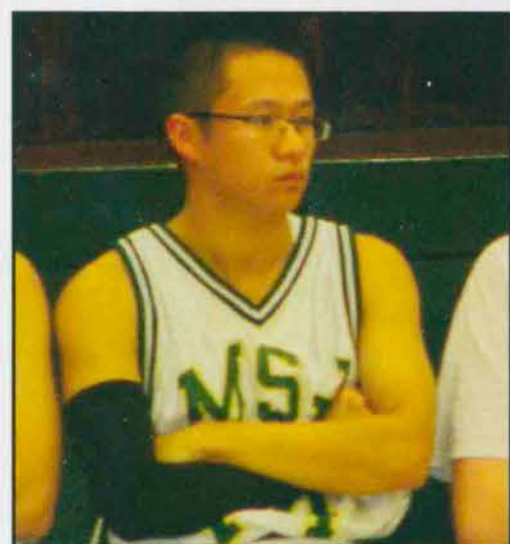

Blurb:

Thank you to my parents in China for giving me support and sending me to America. America is amazing! Thank you all of MSJ! And thank you to Mr. Z as well!

Thank you to my host family----- MOM, DAD, Elizabeth, and Rebekah! You are so nice I love you! I participated in cheerleading and would like to thank Tracy and all the cheerleaders!

I am glad that I can stay in MSJ where I study and make American friends. In addition, I should thank my Chinese friend---Sherry Zhang; she is a nice girl. I think my senior year will be a special memory in my life!

Natalie- "cheer leading and all those crazy car rides home with Shea :) I'm going to miss you next year! <3" Kelsey- "I'm going to miss you back spotting for Devon next year! Good luck in college :)"
Mara- "Break their legs, break their legs!"

"Thank you all for making me feel welcome and a part of the MSJ community. I will miss you all and I wish you the best of luck!"

From Abigail Miglorie

Maddie Cornell says:

"Kaitlyn- BOOM BOOM. Thanks for being my shadow person and helping me make the decision to come to MSJ. You've treated me like you've always known me and never have treated me like an outsider. I will keep the tradition of being the only Soccer Senior next year but it will not be the same without my bench buddy. Thanks for everything!"

Rob-

"Pre-Calc has no meaning, we will never use it in life, besides the number "10""

Joe-

"No more Pre Calc classes....EVER!"

Yoonji -

"Good luck finding another "big booty" tennis player. I'll miss you next year!"

From

Alex Reedy

Jahnathan Mitchell Says:

"Rob, Jaskin, and Shannon I wish you the best of luck in college bro"

To KG

Oh BFFON! What will I do without you! You're gorgeous and I know you'll go far. Enjoy college to the fullest and if you ever get lonely on Fridays that's what I'm here for so just give me a call. There is no doubt in my mind that you'll go far and accomplish so much with your determined attitude. If there's anything you can say you got out of high school it is that you can play Bad Romance on a lime green clarinet. That's more than what so other people can say they got out of high school. I'm so proud of you and I know you'll be amazing!

Love, Shea

To Natalie

You are a beautiful amazing smart girl. We've gone through so much together in three years. There is not one football or basketball game I can look back on and not remember your smiling face there. I know you and your buddies are going to move on to such bigger and better things. They'll have to come back every now and then for some skipping. Please keep the sleeping with your lotion to a minimum, it is very inappropriate and quite frankly weird. If there's any "pigs" that attend a party and leave you to vacuum at 3 am, please, by all means call me to let me know you need to shower, vacuum, and clean the whole house before you can sleep...with your lotion. I will come asap. Best of luck to you in the future. I know you'll go far. I love you so much! <3 p.s. Don't you dare go to college and get another but slapping buddy... I'll cry.

Love, Shea

Brian Riker Says:

"Much love Jay Z" and "Robbed Swag"

Gwen Breslen says: "Kaitlyn, waving at strangers, chillzones, our road trips to mill river for soccer. Love you bestie!! p.s. don't feed pigs bacon! that's just mesed up!"

Seth LaChance Says:

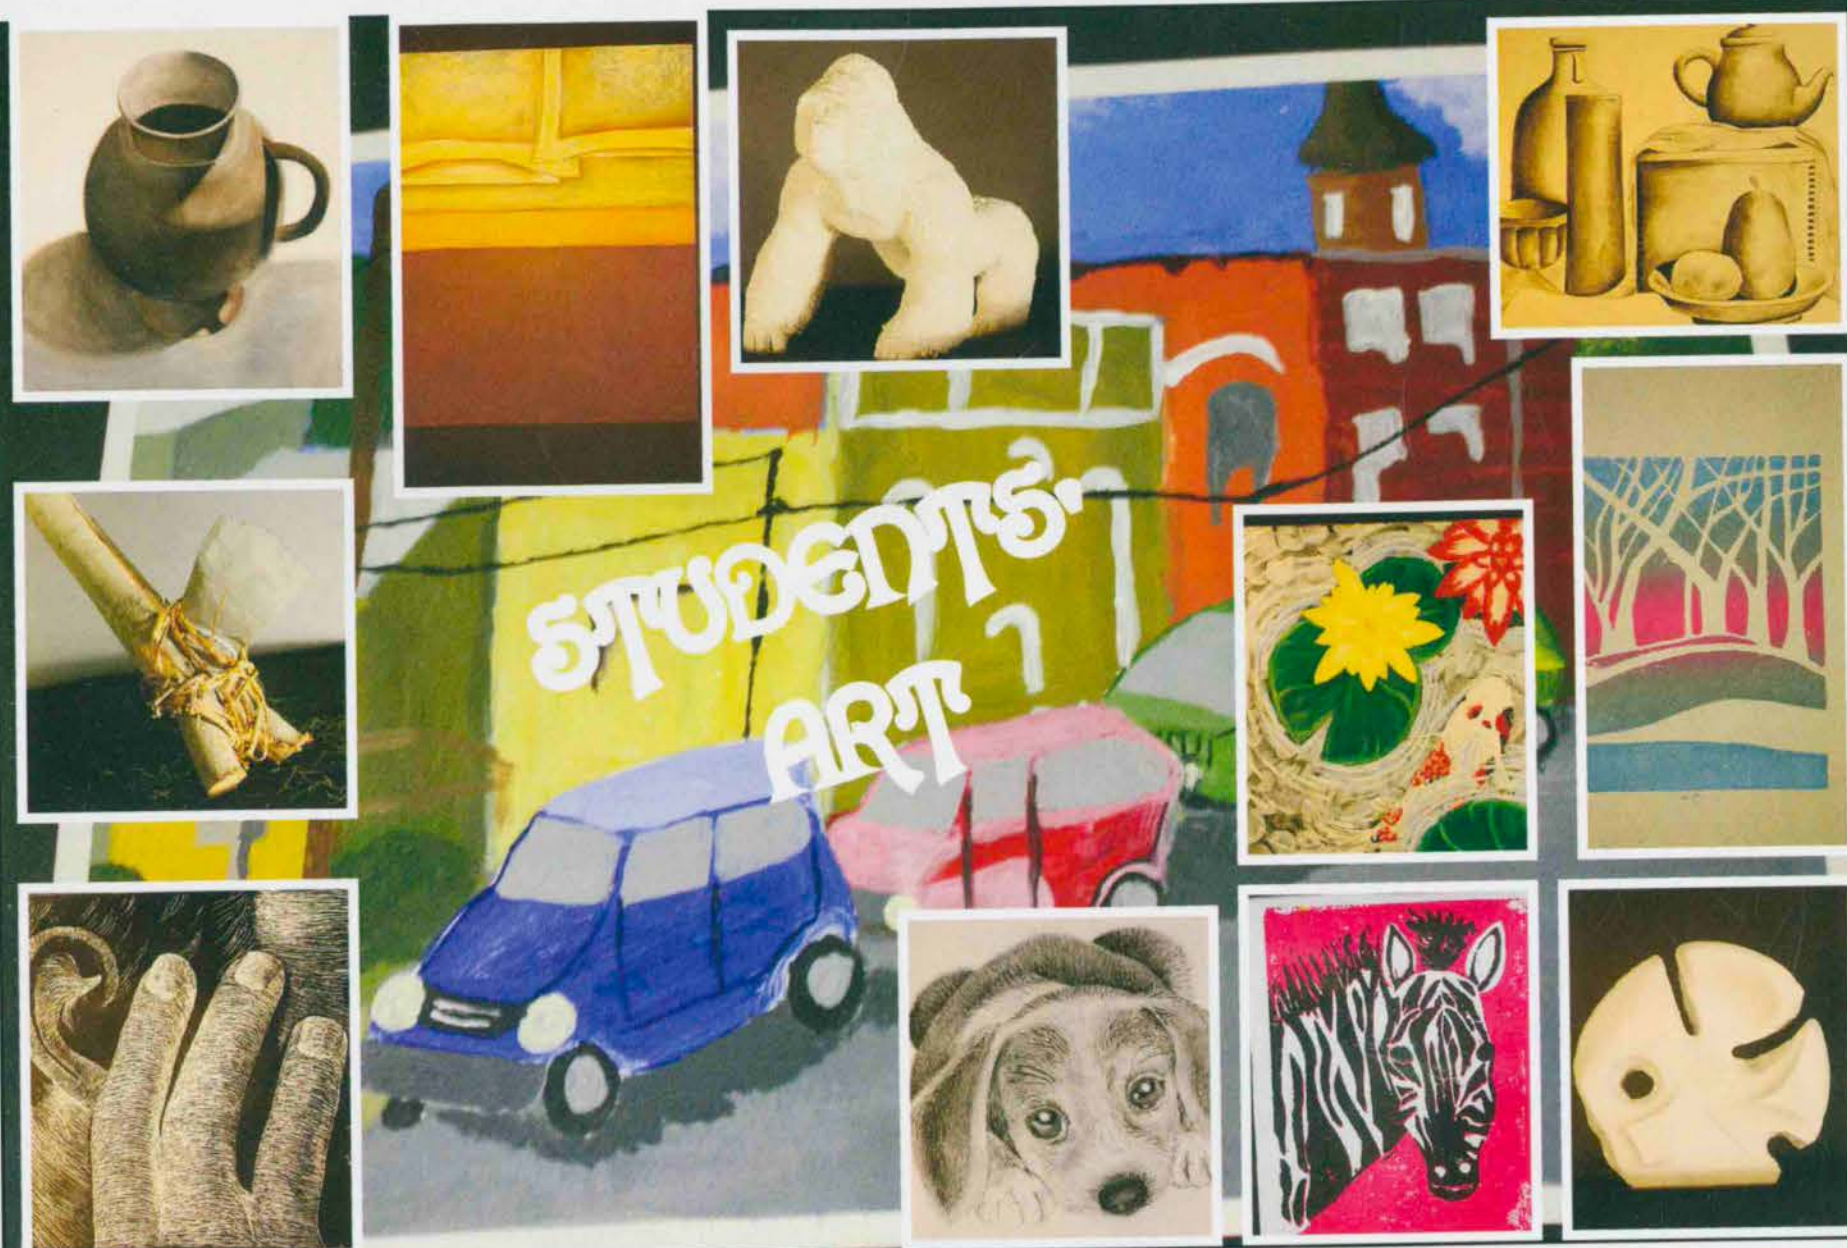

"Rob love you and good luck!"

Victoria Higgins Says:

"Nolan you're such a D.W."

The Staff of Ryan Smith & Carbine, Ltd. would like to Congratulate Drew Altobell and the 2012 Graduating Class.

"Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by dogma – which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of other's opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary."

Hoodies Are Classic Casuals
Comfortable, cozy and laid-back hoodie sweatshirts convey an easy going attitude toward style.

Equestrian Style Steps Out
The classic, English-style riding boot, worn with skirts or tucked-in skinny jeans, is one of the strongest footwear trends for fall and winter.

Pandora Opens Beaded Bracelet Craze
Pandora charm bracelets from Denmark bring design-your-own style and sparkling self-expression to the jewelry store.

Mismatched Socks Are No Accident
Bending the rules is always in style. Students express their creativity by mixing brightly colored, patterned, mismatched socks.

The Time Is Right for the Neon Watch

Energy Drinks as Teen Fuel Both Popular and Controversial
The caffeine and sugar in popular but controversial energy drinks fuel teens to help stay awake for late-night study sessions and socializing.

Stepping Out in Ballet Flats
Cute, comfortable, versatile ballet flats go with just about everything from school outfits to party attire.

Yogurt Goes Greek
Greek-style yogurt, which is creamier and less sour than ordinary yogurt, adds more delicious options to the dairy case.

Cardigans Go Retro
A modern adaptation of the mid-century classic cardigan adds an extra layer of color, warmth, and style.

Aviator Shades Are Retro Chic
A new generation embraces the iconic shades of the 1970s. Metal-rimmed, aviator-style sunglasses make a stylish comeback.

Layers Make the Look
Layering is one of the strongest trends for fall and winter. Mixing textures and lengths, like a cropped jacket over a long top, creates looks that are both cozy and cool.

Shaggy Chic
Tall, fringed suede boots add a touch of irreverent, hippie chic to short skirts, leggings, or tucked-in jeans.

Nail Polish Crackles
Ordinary manicures get contrast, color and texture with special, crackle-effect topcoat formulas.

Music Goes to Your Head
Dr. Dre introduces high-performance, over-ear headphones that cancel outside noise and enhance the listening experience.

Boy Style
Whether they're boot cut, skinny or loose fit, jeans are still the focus of today's style. Just throw on your favorite tee or hoodie and you're good to go!

Faux Is a Go
The posh look and plush feel of faux fur inspires designers to go wild. Fabulous faux jackets, vests, collars and accessories are hot — and warm.
